

The diagram illustrates the layout of a book spread with four distinct lines: a green line at the top for folding, a blue line for safety, a green line for the flap, and a black line for the bleed. Arrows point from each line to its respective label. The top green line has two upward-pointing arrows. The blue line has a horizontal double-headed arrow. The bottom green line has a downward-pointing arrow. The black line has a downward-pointing arrow.
