

The diagram shows a rectangular layout with a red border. Inside, there are two vertical green lines and one horizontal blue line. Arrows point from text labels to these lines. At the top, two arrows point to the green lines from a central text block. In the middle, a long horizontal arrow points from a central text block to the blue line. At the bottom, two arrows point from a central text block to the green lines. The layout is divided into four vertical sections by the green lines and two horizontal sections by the blue line.
