

The diagram shows a rectangular page layout with a light blue background. A vertical green line runs down the center, representing a fold line. A horizontal blue line runs across the middle, representing a safety line. A thin red line runs along the top edge, representing the cut line. Arrows point from the text labels to these respective lines: two arrows point to the red line from above, one arrow points to the blue line from the left, and one arrow points to the green line from the right.
